

PUBLIC SPEAKING & PERFORMANCE TRAINING

Strategies to Become a Confident and Respected Public Speaker

How do you conquer your public speaking anxiety?

We have all had to speak in public at some point in our lives. This can be an extremely stressful experience.

You may have the greatest material and know your content back-to-front, but your presentation nerves can let you down!

This interactive training session prepares you for delivering your most powerful presentation yet. You will learn strategies to control anxiety, techniques to improve articulation and effectively design your presentation.

The following issues and learning outcomes will be covered:

Control Performance Nerves

- How to control stress before and during the presentation
- Present in a calm and concise manner
- Techniques to correct breathing and posture

Improving Presentation Delivery

- Connect with the audience
- Cater for different types of learners
- Techniques to improve articulation and vocal resonance

Planning the Presentation

- How to plan key messages
- Determine how to build your content
- Identify the right communication method

Testimonials

“Learning techniques to overcome ‘physical symptoms’ of fear of public speaking.”
